

Having Therefore Boldness Part 2: The Blood & The Basics

I thank You, Father, for this magnificent journey that I am on with You - going straight into everything that You have for me - to experience supernatural increase through the new door - the grace to continue, to persevere and focus on my projects - my Project Strike - the grace to continue to strike in faith. To strike with my declarations and my faith and my praying and my praise to You. And my project conditioning and project celebration. I continue to celebrate in my heart. I have happy feet, happy mouth, happy heart regardless of circumstances. I praise even though I do not see the signs yet; I do not see the manifestations yet. I know the power of my praise to push me through and pull me through, and to persevere; to not quit on my faith. To see my end results. To receive the fullness that You have promised me. I thank You for the grace for my projects, from Your Holy Spirit. You give me well timed help every time I need it, You give it to me. You help me to do my projects. You help me to be consistent and focused and intense and highly concentrated on it, Lord.

God's given me "Project Strike", because of His love, because of His love. And His love has given me a way for me to fasten my faith so that I don't drift this year; to fix my focus on my strikes, fix my faith on my strikes, so that I don't drift.

Hebrews 10:19,20. "Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus." (Hebrews 10:19-20, KJV) That veil in the tabernacle was torn and what that represented: because I believe in Christ, because I choose to believe in Christ and receive Christ as Saviour, I can now enter into the Holiest; I don't have to stay in the Holy place. I can go into the Holiest, which is the very presence of God Himself. The Holy Spirit works with the Blood and works in my heart to make this effectual in my life. An actual experience I have. God wants me in His presence and not to go out because His presence is within me. It's that constant communion with Himself.

To enter into the Holiest by the Blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which He has consecrated for us through the veil, that is to say, His flesh. I having therefore boldness, my boldness is not because I am bold, my boldness is by the blood.

This is a new open door for me - I experience entering into the holiest and I experience His actual essence of His presence for myself, by the power and the person of the Holy Spirit, who works to make the Blood of Jesus what it paid for effective in my life.

I have great clarity, great light, great certainty, now. This project strike is so personal, it's going to take up-close, personal contact and communion between me and the Holy Spirit, to keep it going this year.

I receive ideas, concepts, and insights from the Holy Spirit as I'm communing with Him, as I'm fellowshiping with Him, talking to Him, speaking to Him in the Spirit in tongues. I have been receiving concepts, ideas, and insights like never before! I get it because I have boldness therefore to enter into the Holiest, which means straight into His presence.

It's about the Holy Spirit guiding me and leading me now.

I keep rejoicing, I keep replenishing and making sure my joy-level stays up, because it undergirds my faith - to keep my faith strong so that I can keep believing God until I see the end result, until I receive the fulfillment of what I'm striking for.

There's nothing that can happen here in my life that will disappoint me in God. I will not bow! I will not bow to unbelief.

I've not been given a spirit of fear, of cowardice, of cringing, craven, fawning fear. But I've been given a spirit of love. I know He loves me! And a spirit of power, spirit of might! And of a sound mind! My mind is always being renewed by the Word, the prophetic Word of God!

I have got to have boldness to enter into the Holiest, by the blood of Jesus, so that I can fellowship and commune with Him face-to-face, in that space and that place. I'm supposed to go into new spaces and new places, I'm in that place and that space with Him, in the Holiest, that's how I see, and that's how I know.

I'm just going to talk to Him now. I'm just getting into the Holiest, I'm just coming in right now with boldness. I'm just hooking up with Him right now, because the blood gives me boldness to do this.'

I don't need to go to a priest to confess my sins. I go to my High Priest, Jesus and the Word says, "He is faithful and just to forgive me and cleanse me from any unrighteousness of it." (1 John 1:9, KJV)

God's Word is the Book to me and I behold wondrous things in it. I will behold wondrous things.

When I turn to the Lord to come boldly, having therefore boldness to enter into the Holiest, when I turn to come, that's when I see, that's when I know, that's when I see, that's when I see Him, I know Him, I hear Him, I experience Him. It's in the Holiest of Holies and You want me there, more and more.

It's the same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead that dwells in me, and He shall also quicken and make alive my mortal body. Fill me with the power to fully fulfill everything that I was born on the earth for. The Holy Spirit is doing in me exactly what He did in Jesus, to perfectly fulfill everything, to be perfectly obedient, to be perfectly meek, submitting to the will of the Father - to be perfectly in fellowship with the Father, moving in and out of the Father all the time.

The blood of Jesus came so that the eternal Spirit could work in me to perfectly fulfill all that God requires of me. It was the Holy Spirit to whom Christ was raised from the dead and exalted to the throne of God. It was the Holy Spirit, who, when the way had been opened, came out of the holiest of all on the day of Pentecost, to impart to men the life and the power of the glorified Christ. Jesus died, He rose again. Holy Spirit raised Him from the dead and He went to take His blood into the heavenlies; He took His blood into the heavenlies and then He said to the disciples, "Wait because the Holy Spirit is coming. He's coming to live in you the way He lived in me to enable you the way He enabled me to fulfill the Father's perfect will on the earth". It is what is available to me, the child of God. It is still the Holy Spirit today, who presides over the way into the holiest, leading in, all who are willing to dwell there. The Holy Spirit has charge of the way into the holiest. He alone has the knowledge and the power to reveal this mystery.

The sound and the song penetrates and permeates me and draws me to Jesus, draws me into the Holiest; draws me into the Holiest right into His very presence face to face.
