

KIDS MESSAGE HIGHLIGHTS_12 April 2020_Having Therefore Boldness_Part 4: The Bold Force of Faith_Ps Sharon Bendixen

Faith is a force: Faith is a force. It attracts God's promises and God's Words into my life. Faith is a proper spiritual force. It is an active power that causes change, it is violently exerted with an unusual degree of strength and energy.

My faith is precious: "My faith is precious, personal and powerful. (1 Peter 1:7 (KJV), (NLT)).

My faith is personal: I must know that my faith and my faith projects are personal. I'm supposed to be directly talking with the Lord about what I'm in faith for. It's going on in my heart with the Lord - me and Him.

Faith is deeply relational: It involves the Father, Jesus, Holy Spirit and me continually. The moment I was born again He gave faith to me. I've got it. Hebrews 12:2 (TPT) (AMP). I am focusing my eyes on Jesus, when I'm reading His Word, looking at His promises and fellowshiping with Him and the Holy Spirit. I'm supposed to be with Jesus, from the time I believe the promise, to the time when the promise is fulfilled. Jesus is involved in my faith. Romans 15:13 (KJV) (AMP). God is the God of hope. Holy Spirit is involved in filling me with joy to overflowing, so that my expectancy never dies down and fades away. I am to Jude 1:20 AMP.

Faith is capable of overcoming: Faith is capable of enforcing any and everything in my covenant. It is capable of overcoming the world, everything and anything in the world system, (John 16:33 AMPC) (1John 5:4 AMPC). This is how I conquer everything and anything in the world. My faith is a force in action, activated by the Holy Spirit, through His Word in me.

Faith presses: Faith in action presses, it doesn't know how to do anything else but to press. My faith exerts continuous force on something, its moving something in a specific direction by pushing, its attacking fiercely and persistently - I am either in, or out of faith; there is nothing in between. I can't be out of faith, when I'm in it. I'm enclosed in faith and surrounded by faith. Faith in action. Active living faith, does not consider the circumstances, when I'm in faith, I'm not in circumstances, I'm in the faith.

Action: The moment I choose to believe when His Word comes to me (anything that is in His word), it is ACTION. My faith is in action and I'm in faith. Faith is a proper real force and the moment it is released from within me through my choice to believe, it goes to work immediately creating what my spirit releases it to create. My ongoing action of releasing my faith is with my words, my prayer and my praise, it ensures that it continues to work on what I have sent it to work on. There truly is nothing that can stop its force, once it's released from my spirit.

How it works: Here is how it works (Mark 11:22-24 KJV). That faith that Jesus imparted to me, when I was born again, is the very faith of God. I have it. I have the faith of God. <sup>22</sup> I Let the faith of God be in me. (Mark 11:22 TPT). I let it be. It is already in me. I let it be coming out of me as that force to create. I have God like faith.

Consider not: Romans 4:19-21

Like Abraham when I'm in faith I actually can't consider the circumstances. The power of the spoken Word of God to him, those promises He made to Abraham, dispelled the doubt. It's all he could hear ringing in his ears, his heart and all he could see with his eyes. The moment he would have considered his own body, he would have been out of faith and not in. I must maintain faith momentum. I'm striking for the changes that I want. At this time I'm preparing, guiding, maintaining and propelling my faith. I'm fully using this time for my Project Strike. my Project Conditioning, my Project Celebration. I'm maintaining faith momentum.

When faith stops: When Jesus talks about moving mountains, He is bringing me the active power of faith to take and carry the power and authority of God's kingdom realm with me wherever I go in the world. The force of faith is flowing through me and only weakens or lessens when I stop it, interrupt it, or allow its force to weaken. This happens when my soul considers (looks at) the circumstances and yields in the moment to anxiety and fear in my mind and my emotions.

Keep on keeping on: Peter was in and then out of faith. (Matthew 14:28-31 KJV). Jesus was fully expecting Peter not to doubt, like He is fully expecting me not to doubt. Peter's faith didn't endure long enough, it was of short duration. I must not faint Proverbs 24:10 (NKJV). Luke 11:9-10 (AMPC), The keep on is vital during the creation period. When I'm creating the changes for all of my strikes. It's vital to keep on keeping on, and not to stop and cut off my faith and spiritual momentum. That's why I press for specific things, until it is fully created and I receive its end-fulfilment. I have sown my seed, I mix it with faith and I keep on, I keep on. (1 Peter 1:9 AMPC), (1 Peter 1:9 KJV). There is a creation period here between the point where I first believed, and I release the force of faith, to where I receive the outcome of my faith. 1 Timothy 1:18, the prophetic word that has prepared me for this time. I am in the fight of faith to win.

Certainty of faith (Isaiah 55:11 AMPC).

That is what kind of certainty faith is. I am speaking, I'm releasing the force of faith that I'm believing, because I am believing, because I choose to believe<sup>11</sup>.... it shall accomplish that which I please and purpose, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it. My different strikes, I'm sending it to different things. Every one of my arrows that I'm striking with will complete the assignments that I give them.
