

Word From The Lord

Jerry Savelle - 07 June 2020

The turnaround you've been hoping for is on its way
And I assure you that you're headed for a better day
I always come through for those who take Me at My Word
And cause miraculous things to happen when their praises can be heard You've stood in faith and would not give in
So continue to rejoice because I'm causing you to win
Your enemy thought that you would not last
But here you are, and your troubles are past
So lift your voice with a shout of praise
And show Me that you're grateful with your hands upraised
This will be just one of the many victories to come
I declare you are the victor and the battle has been won

Many victories to come
