If God is a Continuous Perfect State of Being God, what's the devil then? He is a continuous imperfect state of current being, his state of being changes because he is imperfect. Satan is called the father of lies.

In Luke 4 Jesus says, "I've been sent to deliver the captives, set at liberty those that are captives, and heal the sick." He said, "This day, this day the Scripture is fulfilled in your ears." He was announcing the beginning of His ministry. He was announcing, "I'm no longer only here as a human being that is waiting for My time. I'm now stating that My time to represent the Kingdom of Heaven life is here, the Continuous Perfect State of Being place I've come to bring it to earth actively. I'm declaring by the leading of My Father, I'm declaring that it's active." How Awesome is this!

As for Adam he chose rather to not obey God so sin entered his blood, which you and I are born into, we have the sin of our fathers in our veins. Jesus had the blood of His Father in His veins, so the devil came directly after the announcement to tempt Jesus and to kill but Jesus didn't give it up so if he had given it up sin would have entered His blood, but Jesus made the right choice so His blood stayed pure and he continued to have His authority. Same for us now, how do we get the Father's blood into our spirit man? Through choice, how do we reveal our choice? Through words and through actions.

Read 1 Corinthians 15:22

He has delivered us from the power of darkness and transported us into the kingdom of the Son of His love. He has transported us into a Continuous Perfect State of Being. We have redemption through His Blood, the forgiveness of sins. He doesn't see any of us as being at fault.

When God is looking at us, He sees the blood of Jesus that has been shed for us and when we receive Him into our hearts, He no longer sees us as anything else but as Jesus. Continuous Perfect State of being.

If ever you choose to have nothing to do with God you might find yourself in an accident, that is not God's doing, it is of your own will, you will open yourself up where the angels are no longer protecting you. If this ever happens to you God will use this to tell you, "I'm in you, come back to Me, come back to Me come live with your mind, words, choices come live in the place which the Lord is occupying." Do not ever just make a choice that you will live without the Continuous Perfect State of Being who is continuously perfect towards you.

Colossians 1:15 NKJV, Image meaning representation and manifestation of the Father. Christ in everything He did and everything He was He represented and He Manifested the Father. Jesus said this, "Anyone who has seen Me has seen the Father." Jesus is the perfect representation ever on the earth to completely represent the Father, perfectly.
